1. Individual – Any officially appointed village, town, community board (in borough only) city, or county historian and their officially appointed deputies.
2. Affiliate – Any cultural agency, educational institution, corporation, or individual interested in New York State history and the work of the public historians of New York State. Affiliate members shall be non-voting and shall not hold office.

Section 2. The annual dues shall be set by the Board of Trustees which shall be payable in advance on or before the first of each year to the APHNYS Office. The Chair of the Membership Committee shall notify members whose dues are six months in arrears.

ARTICLE IV Officers

Section 1. The officers of the Association shall be a President, a 1st Vice-President, a 2nd Vice-President, a Secretary, and a Treasurer. These officers shall perform the duties prescribed by these By-Laws and by the parliamentary authority adopted by the Association (Robert's Rules of Order, current edition).

Section 2. There shall be eight trustees, four each elected in successive years for two-year terms.

Section 3. The officers shall be elected to serve a term of two years, and their term shall begin at the close of the meeting at which they are elected.

Section 4. No member shall hold more than one office at a time, and no member shall be eligible to serve more than three consecutive terms in the same office.

Section 5. There shall be an Advisory Council composed of six members to consist of the New York State Historian, the immediate past president and four members to be appointed by the President. Council members shall serve for two years.

Section 6. The President shall appoint an archivist whose duties shall be management and preservation of the records of the organization.

Section 7. Any vacancy during the term of an officer or trustee shall be filled by the appointment by the President upon approval by the Board of Trustees.

ARTICLE V Meetings

Section 1. The Association shall hold at least one statewide meeting each year.

Section 2. An annual meeting shall be held each year for the purpose of electing officers, receiving reports of officers and committees, and for any other business that may arise.

Section 3. Special meetings may be called by the President or by the Board of Trustees and shall be called upon the written request of fifty members of the Association. The purpose of the meeting shall be stated in the call. Except in cases of emergency, at least seven days notice shall be given.

Section 4. Fifteen members of the Association shall constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE VI
Board of Trustees

Section 1. The Board of Trustees shall consist of the Trustees and the officers of the Association.

Section 2. The Board of Trustees shall have the general supervision of the affairs of the Association between its business meetings, fix the hour and place of meetings, make recommendations to the Association, and shall perform such other duties as are specified in these By-Laws. The Board shall be subject to the orders of the Association, and none of its acts shall conflict with actions taken by the Association.

Section 3. Unless otherwise ordered by the Board, a meeting of the Board of Trustees shall be held during the statewide meeting of the Association. Special meetings of the Board may be called by the President or upon written request of three members of the Board.

ARTICLE VII
Committees

Section 1. The President of the Association shall name at the beginning of his/her term five members widely representative of each category of historian, who shall serve as the Nominating Committee. It shall be the duty of this committee to nominate candidates for the offices. The Nominating Committee shall report to the membership at the annual meeting. Additional nominees from the floor shall be permitted.

Section 2. A Finance Committee composed of the Treasurer, and four other members, (one of whom shall serve as Deputy Treasurer), shall be appointed by the President. It shall be the duty of the committee to prepare a budget and to submit it to the Association. The Finance Committee may from time-to- time submit amendments to the budget for the current fiscal year, which may be adopted by the Board of Trustees by a majority vote.

Section 3. A Membership Committee of twelve members, one representing each of the twelve regions, shall be appointed by the President. It shall be the duty of this committee to monitor and encourage membership. The committee shall develop a recruiting plan of membership and report on its progress.

Section 4. A Program Committee of five members shall be appointed by the President whose duty it shall be to review the planning of the regular programs and conference agendas of the Association. These members shall consist of an appointed board member(s), the county historian in whose county the conference is being held, and other members deemed necessary by the President. This committee shall report to the Board of Trustees.

Section 5. An Audit Committee of three members shall be appointed by the President, whose duty it shall be to audit the Treasurer's accounts at the close of the preceding.

Section 6. A Legislative Committee, consisting of three members, shall be appointed by the President promptly after each annual meeting.

Section 7. Such other committees, standing or special, shall be appointed by the President of the Association or the Board of Trustees from time-to-time deemed necessary to carry on the work of the Association. The President shall be an ex-officio member of all committees except the Nominating Committee.
