Association of Public Historians of New York State
2020 Conference

Spread the Word

The 2020 Association of Public Historians of New York State (APHNYS) annual conference will be held in Oswego, New York, September 21–23. You're invited to spread the word about your organization, institution, products, or services to the 100+ public historians in attendance, our 500+ members, and New York's 1,600+ government-appointed historians.

Who We Are

APHNYS is a 501(c)3 non-profit professional organization that represents the 1,600+ government-appointed historians in New York State. Under state law, every county and municipality in New York is required to have an appointed historian to document, preserve, interpret, and share the history of their communities. It is part of the state's commitment to ensuring that New Yorkers have access to quality educational experiences enriched by cultural heritage resources. Our state's local historians are here to serve you!

You're Invited to...

What's the Benefit?

- Contact with 100+ conference attendees, 500+ members, and 1,600+ government-appointed historians
- Mentions in conference emails to 1,600+ contacts, on the APHNYS website, and in APHNYS social media feeds
- An audience of historians who are looking for books, tools, and services that will allow them to do a better job and reach bigger audiences
